1. Scope of Work: OPEN TENDER- “AS AND WHEN REQUIRED”

The tender is for the supply and delivery of horticultural plants to be used as mother plants for propagation purposes at Peter Gibbs Nursery.

The contract shall be on a recurring, as-and-when-required basis until the applicable procurement threshold or contract value has been reached.

2. Specification

The Contractor shall supply and deliver horticultural plants in accordance with the following requirements:

2.1 Plant Material

- Supply horticultural plants, including shrubs, groundcovers, seedlings.
- All plants shall be true to type and correctly labelled with their botanical names.

2.2 Plant Quality

- Plants shall be healthy, vigorous, well-established, and in good condition at the time of delivery.
- Plants shall be free from pests, diseases, weeds, nutrient deficiencies, mechanical damage, and any physiological disorders.
- Plants shall exhibit good colour, uniform growth, and a well-developed root system.
- Plants shall be bushy or multi-stemmed where applicable to the species.

2.3 Nursery Requirements

- Plants shall be sourced from nurseries accredited by the South African Nursery Association (SANA) or an equivalent recognised accreditation body.
- Evidence of accreditation shall be provided upon request.

2.4 Plant Sizes

- Plants shall be supplied in the container sizes, bag sizes, or heights specified in the pricing schedule.
- No undersized plants will be accepted.

2.5 Delivery

- Plants shall be delivered in a manner that prevents damage during transport and handling.
- Root balls and containers shall remain intact during delivery.
- Plants showing signs of stress, wilting, damage, or poor health upon delivery may be rejected.

2.6 Inspection and Acceptance

- All plants shall be subject to inspection by the Employer upon delivery.
- The Employer reserves the right to reject any plants that do not comply with this specification.
- Rejected plants shall be replaced by the Contractor at no additional cost to the Employer within the agreed replacement period.
